

Pragathi for nat'l racing

Bengaluru: Six talented women drivers have been shortlisted to take part in the JK Tyre-FMSCI National Racing Championship 2019 (JKNRC) under Team Ahura. Natasha Puri and Ojasvi Mehta (Mumbai), Shivani Gaurav and Aman Jubbal (Delhi), Pragathi B (Bengaluru) and Anushriya Gulati (Dehradun) have been selected to compete in the four rounds of JKNRC, starting on July 26.

The brainchild of former racer and team owner of Ahura Racing-Sarosh Hataria, this one-of-a-kind all-women's team will compete in the popular LGB-4 Formula Car category at the JKNRC for the second year running. Natasha for her outstanding performance has won herself a fully sponsored drive in the meet. TNN
