

Arjun set for Le Mans debut

Young Indian racer Arjun Maini, who was forced to halt his single-seater career this season, will tick off a major motorsport milestone when he competes at the 24 Hours of Le Mans this weekend. Maini has switched to sports car racing this year but vows to return to single seaters in the near future. Maini will compete in the LMP2 category, which has 19 other entries, for British team RLR Msport. The 21-year-old will share racing duties with gentleman driver John Ferraro and the experienced Frenchman Norman Nato. The other Indians who have been part of a Le Mans weekend are Narain Karthikeyan and Karun Chandhok. "Competing in one of motorsport's biggest races is crazy! The atmosphere during testing alone was something special and I can hardly wait for the actual race weekend."