Bengaluru teenager Sohil Shah made the best of the pole-position start to notch a fine win in the premier MRF F1600 category and head the leaderboard in round four of the MRF MMSC FMSCI Indian National Car Racing Championship at the MMRT here on Saturday, that had a delayed start owing to the rains in the morning.

Due to the late start, only two of the four races scheduled for the day could be completed. The remaining races would be added to the six slated for Sunday which will have an early start at 8.15 am.
