

Ruhaan claims National karting crown:

Bengaluru's Ruhaan Alwa capped a spectacular run in the X-30 class of the JK Tyre-FMSCI National Karting Championship to emerge the 2019 junior champion in Bengaluru on Saturday.

Ruhaan sealed his victory in Race 1 itself, riding on his supremacy in earlier rounds to amass 164 points in the five rounds. He collected 34 points over the weekend too to win a ticket to the World Karting finals in France next month. City-mate Arjun S Nair (134 points) and Chennai's Ryan Mohammed (91) took the second and third places in the championship. Among cadets, Bengaluru's Ishaan Madhesh won three more races to accumulate 36 points for a grand total of 189 points. Results: Cadets: 1. Ishaan Madhesh (Bengaluru, 189 points); 2. Shriya Lohia (Pune, 134); 3. Sai Shiva Makesh Sankaran (Pune, 117). Juniors: 1. Ruhaan Alwa (Bengaluru, 164); 2. Arjun Nair (Bengaluru, 134); 3. Ryan Mohammed (Chennai, 91).

Seniors: 1. Nirmal Umashankar (Chennai, 160); 2. Aditya Swaminathan (Bengaluru, 101), 3. Debarun Banerjee (Delhi, 82).
